ONE OF THE MYSTERIES

Of the Year, and, it May Be, of the

TWO WOMEN MURDERED

By Poisoned Candy Sent by Mail Clear Across the Continent—Mrs. Botkin's Name Will Be a Noted One for a While.

San Francisco, Aug. 24.—Mrs. D. A. Bot-kin, who is accused of causing the death of Mrs. J. P. Dunning and Mrs. J. D.
Deane of Dover, Del., is now in the city prison here, having been brought from Stockton this morning. Mrs. Botkin declined absolutely to talk to newspaper representatives, but to the chief of police she earnestly protested her innocence.

What the police regard as an important piece of evidence was made public today. Frank Garrett, a salesman in the Wave candy store, at Stockton, says that about three weeks ago a woman came into the store and asked for a four-ounce box of candy, saying that she had some candy which she desired to put in the box with some of the store candy. Garrett gave her a box which did not have the firm name on it. The candy which she put in looked odd to him and it scarcely half filled the box. He says he did not examine the candy closely and can only describe her by saying that she was of medium height and build. Garrett could not fix the time of selling the candy in question any more definitely than it was about three weeks ago. e was positive, however, that there were chocolate creams among the candy, besides other French candies. Kuhn, proprietor of the store, says that he would know both the box and the candy again should he see them.

Detective Gibson, who assisted in the arrest of Mrs. Botkin for the murder of Mrs. J. P. Dunning and sister, states that he had no warrant for the arrest of any other woman. He thinks that Mrs.
Botkin will break down, and has taken precautions to prevent her from committing suicide. She was much agitated when told that she would have to stand trial on a charge of murder, but soon recovered herself and said that the charge would have to be proved.

A trunk belonging to Mrs. Botkin was seized in this city today by Detective Seymour. Chief of Police Loe has not yet opened it and will not do so until formal extradition papers are received from Delaware.

FIRST NIGHT IN JAIL.
Stockton, Cal., Aug. 24.—Mrs. Botkin spent a rather restless night in her cell in the county jail last night after having been arrested for the alleged murder of Mrs. Dunning and Mrs. Deane. She had nothing to say, however, and refused to see reporters. Dr. Stone, who had been giving Mrs. Botkin morphine for her nerves, informed the jailor that she had enough of the drug to kill her if she should take it all at once, so it was taken from her shortly after her arrival at the jail.

The accused woman was taken from the jail in this city this morning in a hack and driven to the Southern Pacific station, where she left for San Francisco on the 8:25 o'clock train, accompanied by Chief of Police Gail of Stockton. Detective Gibson of San Francisco and her husband.

JOHN P. DUNNING'S VIEWS.
Dover, Del., Aug. 24.—John P. Dunning, whose wife and sister-in-law were poisoned by candy sent from San Francisco, has made a statement to the Associated Press.
He says:

"I have talked with an attorney general and other state officials of Delaware, discussing all the facts within my knowledge which could possibly lead to the detection of the person whose act caused this tragedy. From the moment I learned of the death of my wife and sister-in-law I have been waiting for my arrival in New York from Porto Rico last Friday, my one desire has been that the guilty should be brought to justice. I have withheld nothing from the officials which could lead to the detection of the criminal. But for two reasons I must refuse to make any statements for publication. First, because it might defeat the ends of justice, and, second, because innocent persons might be involved. I will continue to maintain this course, even at the risk of subjecting myself to unjust criticisms."

Francisco. The two big confectioners of the Pacific coast are Maskey and Gruenhausen, as well known in the west as Huyler and Mallard here. Both of these employed just such boxes in their business, so the search so far has only made the case more complex.

The character of the victims makes the problem of motive insoluble. Conceivably sending your wife or sister a box of candy impregnated with deadly poison.

It is diabolical!
Until the chemical analysis of the candy there were theories of pomanes or the generation of permanganate of potash from the gasfitter and the bitter almond flavoring the candy. But the chemist proved by his first test that murder had been done.

Before the coroner's jury Dr. Wolfe, of the Delaware Agricultural College, made this statement:

"I received today from Dr. Bishop a box containing a portion of the candy supposed to have been eaten by Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Dunning and J. D. Deane and several others, for analysis. From description of symptoms I suspected the presence of arsenic in the candy. My investigation was directed exclusively toward the detection of that poison as near as possible. In the application of the usual tests I found that my suspicions were correct, and that the candy contained a very large quantity of arsenic, and I found pieces of arsenic as large as peas.
A fatal dose is from two or three grains, and I found in three bon-bon boxes from ten to twelve grains, enough to kill four persons. It requires a prescription to purchase arsenic, but you could buy rough on rats with a little coloring which is the same."

Slender as the clues are there is a like-hood of the San Francisco detectives following them. They will probably find who sent the candy out there. There is metropolitan proportions that gets into
